Tried to Cut Off His Foot.
Chicago, May 31.—Crazed by rheumatic pains, Gustav Rolberg, seventy-two years old, has endeavored to amputate his left foot to relieve himself of pain. As the old man sat on the floor in his home and began his operation his wife, who is helpless from paralysis, looked on from her chair within a few feet of him. Her screams attracted two policemen, who rushed into the house and took the knife from Rolberg. He had severed an artery, and by the time he arrived at the county hospital he was so weak it is thought he cannot survive.

Pharaoh.
The word pharaoh was not, strictly speaking, the name of an individual, but of a class or race. For ages all the Egyptian kings called themselves pharaohs, just as the Roman emperors were each styled Augustus.

Will Be Pleased to See You AT THE OLD STAND.

Memorial Day in New England.
Boston, May 31.—Memorial day was observed throughout New England both as an occasion for honoring the deceased and living soldiers as a general holiday season. The noticeable feature of the day was the great outpouring of people to the cemeteries and the decoration of the graves of soldiers, relatives and friends. In every city and town where a Grand Army post is located the veterans marched to the cemeteries and held memorial exercises.

The British government has agreed to buy all the duke's Lagos cotton for three years. The potentate wore a striking robe of canary colored silk, over which was hung a mantle of canary plush; a pale blue cap, decorated with lizards, and high yellow boots.
